FAITH & WORSHIP

During Lent we will meet some of our neighbors who benefit from Catholic Charities programs.

This week meet Denise

St. Vincent Apartments includes 120 low-income housing units and access to all of the other services at Catholic Charities. Denise is a resident in this apartment complex. She says, "I really appreciate being here because of the staff. I love the security, I feel safe. And being 73 years old, I feel great being here."

Catholic Charities provides shelter and housing support, without judgement, to hundreds of homeless individuals in need each day through 4 different programs:

- The Emergency Night Shelter provides an average of 400 men with a safe place to rest their heads and refresh each night.
- The Renewing Hope Program helps hundreds of men transition from homelessness to self-sufficiency. Case managers help them work through obstacles on their path to secure employment and housing by providing structure, life skills, and job readiness training. This program has an 80% success rate.
- At the Housing Navigation Center, case managers help divers individuals and families into temporary housing options or reconnect with out-of-state family members before they fall into the cycle of homelessness.
- Lastly, The St. Vincent Apartments is available as a low-income housing option.

The Gospel in Les Misérables

Les Misérables is one of the greatest novels of all time. As exciting as the story is, the novel is also filled with Christian attributes: faith in God, forgiveness, redemption, reconciliation, conversion, sacrifice, and Heaven. (In fact, one critic 160 years ago said it was “too Christian.” That didn’t stop it from becoming one of the biggest selling novels in history.)

Find out for yourself and be immersed in this timeless story through our special Lenten presentation: “Parables of Today: The Gospel in Les Misérables,” featuring clips from the movie musical and discussion.

Attend this presentation on Tuesday, March 19, 6-7:30pm in the Father White room of the Parish Center. Feel free to bring something to eat.

Hopefully you were able to attend the production of the Student Edition of Les Misérables by Bishop Gorman, February 16 - March 2 . . . of the re-release in theaters of the movie musical, scheduled for February 23 - March 1. If you missed those opportunities, you can also watch the movie ahead of attending this presentation through several streaming services.

Directions for Lenten Prayer Cross

Recite and meditate on “A Prayer for Lenten Grace”. Reflect on those things that threaten your well being of body and soul that keep you from being a living sign of God’s love for all. Decide how you will strive to change this pattern in your life to draw you closer to Him.

Now that you have identified the area of your life you wish to change simply write your Lenten intention in the space where indicated on one of the purple papers located in the foyer. Then fold the paper in half and drop the completed prayer request in the Lenten Prayer Cross basket in the foyer of church.

Your Lenten prayer will be placed on the cross in the sanctuary of the church and the entire parish will pray for God’s grace to help you change this area of your life during Lent.

Are You Grieving the Loss of a Loved One – Or Know Someone Who Is?

St. Viator Bereavement Ministry presents GriefShare, a 13-part weekly seminar and support group designed to help you rebuild your life.

We know it hurts and we want to help.

We will meet Wednesdays,
9-10:30am
in the Fr. White Room of our Parish Center
Session began February 7.
We will not meet March 13.

GriefShare is designed in such a way that you can still get valuable information even if you join after the cycle has begun.

A Prayer for Lenten Grace

Loving God,
during the sacred season of Lent,
bring me closer to You.

Prepare a place in my home and heart
for silence and solitude,
so that I may re-discover the grace of a prayer-full life.

Help me to fast from those things that threaten the well-being of body and soul
and remind me of the grace of simplicity.

Enlarge my heart
so that I give to those in need and in so doing, re-discover the grace of gratitude and generosity.

May this season be a grace-filled time to rekindle my love for and faith in You.

Amen.

The 2024
Chrism Mass

Archbishop George Leo Thomas Ph.D. welcomes all the faithful of the Archdiocese of Las Vegas to join in the celebration of the Chrism Mass!

Thursday, March 21, 2024 at 6:00 PM

Our Lady of Las Vegas Parish 3050 Alta Drive.

Guest homilist is Very Rev. Mark Francis, CSV,
Provincial Superior of the Clerics of Saint Viator
(The Viatorians).

ARCHDIOCESE OF
LAS VEGAS

The poster features a photograph of Archbishop George Leo Thomas in white vestments and a pink mitre, performing the Chrism Mass by pouring oil into a golden vessel. The background is a warm, golden-yellow color. The text is in a mix of black and white fonts, with the title 'The 2024 Chrism Mass' in a large, elegant script. The guest homilist's name and title are circled in red.

SCENES FROM LA YOUTH DAY

LA youth day is the kickoff for the Los Angeles Religious Education Congress. Rosy Hartz, our parish Youth Faith Formation Coordinator states, "This event proved once again to be a trip that's "worth it." From the music to the speakers, a closing mass with 7,500 it shows 1 day of impact can leave lasting memories for the youth of our church."

Our teens rose before dawn to arrive at church for ashes from Fr. Rinn with help from Br. Peter Lamick, CSV before they departed on buses for LA Youth Day.

Thank you to everyone who supported our Viator Youth fundraising efforts so they could attend this unforgettable event.

FAITH & WORSHIP

I am the Lord your God ... You shall not have other gods beside me. —Ex 20:2-3

One of the greatest golfers of all time - if not the greatest - was Jack Nicklaus. Which is why it is baffling that at the beginning of each season he would return to his childhood coach and re-learn how to grip the golf club. It's like Shakespeare re-learning the alphabet and grammar. Why would he do that? Because Jack knew that the fundamentals are always relevant. Perfecting and obsessing over his grip allowed him to do everything else in the game well. In sports and life, the best ones love the basics.

Similarly, as we begin Lent, we re-learn the spiritual basics in the Ten Commandments. Consider the first, to “have no other gods besides me.” This is our “grip.” Is our connection to God one of absolute fidelity and exclusive worship? Am I willing to let go of my precious idols, the things I cling to instead of God? Once we say “yes” to this fundamental question of our spiritual “grip,” then we are ready to properly engage with everything else in life. Watch how beautifully the game of life unfolds in the next nine commandments (numbered in parentheses): how we speak to God and others (2 and 8), how we organize our week (3), how we relate to our family (4) and the wider community (5 and 7), how we live our sexuality (6), and how we order all the other desires of the human heart (9 and 10). But don't rush to these later Commandments too soon! Everything in life is built on the first Commandment. The more we focus on worshiping God alone, the better we navigate the complexity of life with panache, effectiveness, and love.

Lenten challenge: This week, identify what you can do to better worship God alone. If you're not sure, scan the last nine commandments to identify what you are most likely to worship instead of God. Power, pleasure, control of your time, possessions, family, health, reputation, money? Commit to concrete action to help you let go of this “idol” to better hold on to God alone in faithful worship. Remember: the best love the basics.

The Merciful Anger of Jesus

Watch your fellow churchgoers today as the priest or deacon reads the story of Jesus raising hell (or perhaps he's raising heaven?) in the temple square. Dollars to donuts, they'll be squirming.

As Catholics, we have become very uncomfortable with Angry Jesus. He makes us cringe in the same way that the Old Testament God does when He calls Himself “jealous” and talks about punishment. That level of intensity makes us recoil. If it were present in a human relationship, it would be toxic and abusive, because in humanity, fierceness and love rarely coexist in a healthy way.

But what a tragedy it would be for us to mistake our relationship with God for our relationship with our spouse, our best friend, or even our human father. Because we cannot see clearly, we would mistake His zeal for anger and His law for dictat.

The strong and sure movement of a wave against a rocky cliff will, over time, erode its surface, just as an overabundance of raindrops will flood a city. We do not call the water callous and cruel. We still luxuriate in its coolness and refreshment. Its destructive powers don't negate the life-giving properties of water. We do not demand that water apologize to us for being strong.

Fierce, uncompromising — but also, soft and merciful. How can God — and God's law — be both, at the same time? How can Christ cast a whip at someone's foot, overturn a table and scatter coins? How can the law of God be perfect, as the Psalm says, and refresh the soul — while demanding so much of it?

All I can say is, thank God for Angry Jesus. We need his fierceness and thank God it does not wane because it confuses us. Thank God his mercy does not decrease because we doubt it.

“For the foolishness of God is wiser than human wisdom, and the weakness of God is stronger than human strength.”

I Corinthians 1:25
