Traditional Stations are also available this Friday at 12:15 PM in the church.

Fridays of Lent at 7:00PM & 12:15PM

Prayer List Procedure - Individuals will remain on the prayer list for three months (date is when added or re-added to the Prayer List). Please call the office if an individual is in continued need of prayers.

FAITH & WORSHIP

During Lent we will meet some of our neighbors who benefit from Catholic Charities programs.

This week meet Jonathan and Nohemy

As a single father to four-year-old Nohemy, Jonathan has utilized the pantry to help make ends meet for the past few months. He says, "The food pantry really helps, especially around the holidays. I want to make them special for my daughter and coming here really helps."

The Hands of Hope Community Food Pantry is visited by approximately 4,000 families and individuals each month. Through this program, Catholic Charities works to fight hunger for all vulnerable community members, including many low-income families and seniors.

Your contributions help sustain the pantry throughout the times of the year when food drives and donations are low, ensuring families like Jonathan and Nohemy can receive a consistent level of food each month.

You can also support the pantry by donating nonperishable food (which we collect at our parish), organizing drives, becoming a volunteer, or making a contribution during the Faces of Hunger Campaign.

St. Viator Parish School

Registration for 2024 - 2025

Whether you are selecting a "school home" for the next ten years and preparing your child for Pre-Kindergarten, or searching out a new warm, safe learning environment for your children, come and experience St. Viator School.

Schedule a tour by calling the school office at 702.732.4477 or email tdrewes@stviator.org.

Our parish school began accepting applications the first week of January for Pre-K and Kindergarten.

Applications for all other grades are taken throughout the month of February with testing in March and notification of acceptance in April.

Good Friday March 29th Collection

The Holy Land Franciscans are counting on your financial help to assist them in providing presence, care and service in the Holy Land.

Your donation is applied to these programs:

- Faith, Memory & Culture – Maintain the Holy Places
- Social & Charitable Activities - Low income housing and medical facilities
- Educational & Scientific Activities - Support schools, scholarships for seminarians, as well as archeological research of the Holy Places
- Pastoral Activities - Assist in 29 parishes with worship, faith formation and family programs
- Liturgical and Communications Programs— The Christian Media Center tells the story of the Holy Land through multimedia distributed throughout the world in more than seven

The Gospel in Les Misérables

Les Misérables is one of the greatest novels of all time. As exciting as the story is, the novel is also filled with Christian attributes: faith in God, forgiveness, redemption, reconciliation, conversion, sacrifice, and Heaven. (In fact, one critic 160 years ago said it was “too Christian.” That didn’t stop it from becoming one of the biggest selling novels in history.)

Find out for yourself and be immersed in this timeless story through our special Lenten presentation: “Parables of Today: The Gospel in Les Misérables,” featuring clips from the movie musical and discussion.

Attend this presentation on Tuesday, March 19, 6-7:30pm in the Father White room of the Parish Center. Feel free to bring something to eat.

Hopefully you were able to attend the production of the Student Edition of Les Misérables by Bishop Gorman, February 16 - March 2 . . . of the re-release in theaters of the movie musical, scheduled for February 23 - March 1. If you missed those opportunities, you can also watch the movie ahead of attending this presentation through several streaming services.

Directions for Lenten Prayer Cross

Recite and meditate on “A Prayer for Lenten Grace”. Reflect on those things that threaten your well being of body and soul that keep you from being a living sign of God’s love for all. Decide how you will strive to change this pattern in your life to draw you closer to Him.

Now that you have identified the area of your life you wish to change simply write your Lenten intention in the space where indicated on one of the purple papers located in the foyer. Then fold the paper in half and drop the completed prayer request in the Lenten Prayer Cross basket in the foyer of church.

Your Lenten prayer will be placed on the cross in the sanctuary of the church and the entire parish will pray for God’s grace to help you change this area of your life during Lent.

Are You Grieving the Loss of a Loved One – Or Know Someone Who Is?

St. Viator Bereavement Ministry presents GriefShare, a 13-part weekly seminar and support group designed to help you rebuild your life.

We know it hurts and we want to help.

We will meet Wednesdays,
9-10:30am
in the Fr. White Room of our Parish Center
Session began February 7.
We will not meet March 13.

GriefShare is designed in such a way that you can still get valuable information even if you join after the cycle has begun.

A Prayer for Lenten Grace

Loving God,
during the sacred season of Lent,
bring me closer to You.

Prepare a place in my home and heart
for silence and solitude,
so that I may re-discover the grace of a prayer-full life.

Help me to fast from those things that threaten the well-being of body and soul
and remind me of the grace of simplicity.

Enlarge my heart
so that I give to those in need and in so doing, re-discover the grace of gratitude and generosity.

May this season be a grace-filled time to rekindle my love for and faith in You.

Amen.

The 2024
Chrism Mass

Archbishop George Leo Thomas Ph.D. welcomes all the faithful of the Archdiocese of Las Vegas to join in the celebration of the Chrism Mass!

Thursday, March 21, 2024 at 6:00 PM

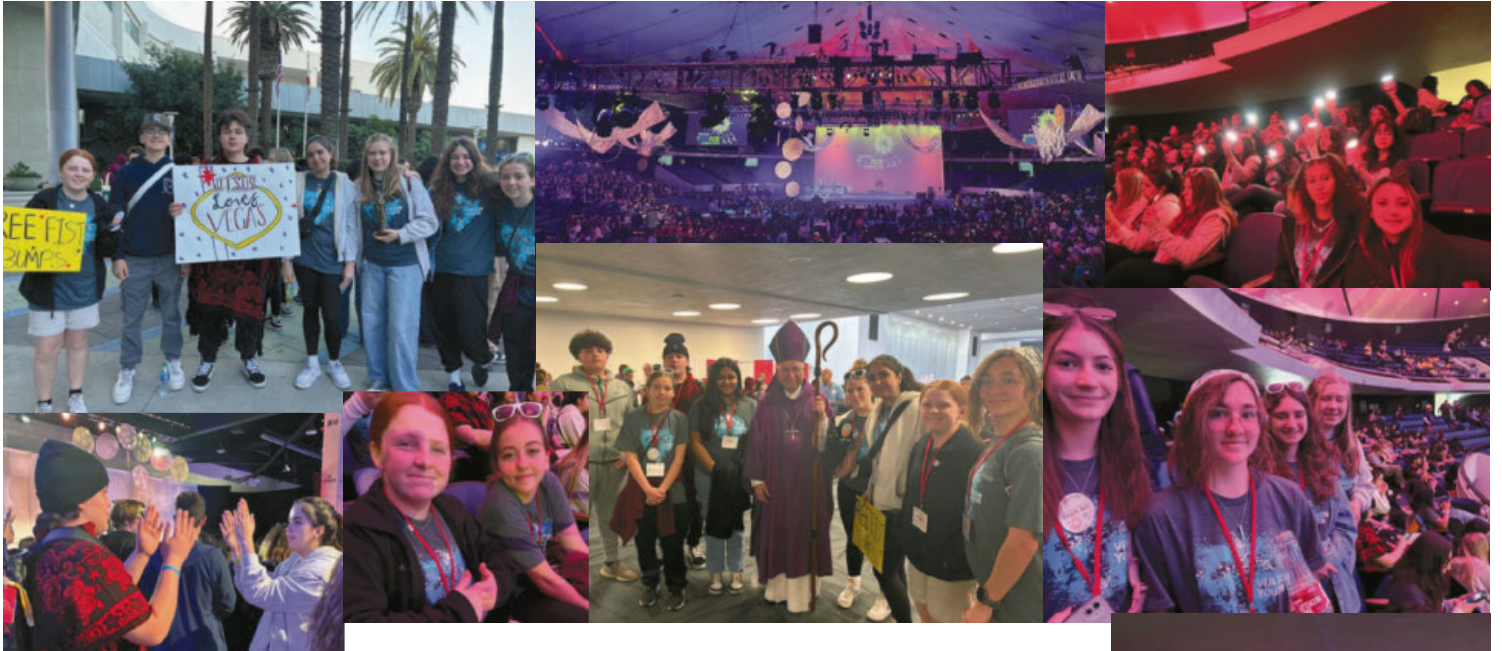

Our Lady of Las Vegas Parish
3050 Alta Drive.

Guest homilist is Very Rev. Mark Francis, CSV,
Provincial Superior of the Clerics of Saint Viator
(The Viatorians).

ARCHDIOCESE OF
LAS VEGAS

The poster features a photograph of Archbishop George Leo Thomas in white vestments and a pink mitre, performing the Chrism Mass by pouring oil into a golden vessel. The background is a warm, golden-yellow color. The text is in various fonts, including a large, elegant script for the title. The guest homilist's name and title are circled in red.

SCENES FROM LA YOUTH DAY

LA youth day is the kickoff for the Los Angeles Religious Education Congress. Rosy Hartz, our parish Youth Faith Formation Coordinator states, "This event proved once again to be a trip that's "worth it." From the music to the speakers, a closing mass with 7,500 it shows 1 day of impact can leave lasting memories for the youth of our church."

Our teens rose before dawn to arrive at church for ashes from Fr. Rinn with help from Br. Peter Lamick, CSV before they departed on buses for LA Youth Day.

Thank you to everyone who supported our Viator Youth fundraising efforts so they could attend this unforgettable event.

The Uncomfortable Life in the Light

Our national pastime isn't baseball. It's what the Bible calls "condemning the world." We generally enjoy pronouncing curses upon those whom we see as trouble, wrong, or evil. Don't believe me? Listen to almost any podcast, cable news network, or social media platform to hear it. It will be some version of: "We all agree that if they are eradicated, things will be great."

Condemning is almost always clothed in virtue. It basks in its good intentions. That's why it is so attractive. Condemning seems like our best path to saving what is good.

What a shock, then, to hear Jesus announce: "For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him" (Jn 3:17). He comes to save the world, as we all want, but he will accomplish it without an act of condemnation. How hard it is to accept this! Condemning feels godlike. I judge who and what must be lost to protect the good. But in the light of Jesus' endless mercy and love, this is the least godlike thing we can do.

Lenten challenge: This week, I invite you to give up the delicious experience of condemning whomever in the world you most would like to see gone. Perhaps write down their names. Secondly, I invite you to consider fasting from any media that feeds the tasty but deadly tendency to condemn.

If you have ever been a woman over the age of 30 who stayed in a budget motel, you know the horror of awakening in a dark room, switching on the bathroom lights and screaming at the shriveled-up she-witch you find hiding there.

And you know the feeling of disappointment that blooms in the pit of your stomach as you realize the shriveled-up she-witch is your own reflection staring back at you beneath the merciless glare of overhead fluorescent lighting.

You may also know the relief of visiting a nice restaurant after dark and catching sight of yourself in the mirror. You lean forward, mesmerized by how different — how matte! How smooth! — the contours of your face look in what we call "forgiving light." But this turn of phrase is simply not correct. It is not light, and it does not forgive. It is darkness, and it merely conceals.

But it feels so much better, doesn't it? Salvation can feel like condemnation, when being lost is all you know. Sometimes it is so much more comfortable to live lost in the shadows.

It is possible to yearn for darkness. Darkness gives cover to so many things. The light has a harshness that can almost seem demanding, exposing. Light can bleach. Light can burn.

"Is this really me?" you think in that budget hotel bathroom, examining acne scars you never saw before and crow's feet that seem to have developed overnight. The answer is yes. Yes, that is really you, all of it, every inch. There's nothing to be afraid of, just step into the light and own it.

"And this is the verdict, that the light came into the world, but people preferred darkness to light, because their works were evil."

Triduum and Easter Schedule

Join us during the holiest days of our liturgical year

Holy Thursday ~ March 28th Mass of the Lord's Supper ~ 7:00 PM

Mass on Holy Thursday is the commemoration of the Last Supper and institution of the Eucharist. Our prayer calls us to remember what God has done for us through Jesus Christ. Our liturgy is rich in symbols and gestures ~ washing of feet, renewal of priestly vows, blessing of parish ministers and the dramatic candlelit transfer of the Eucharist to the tabernacle.

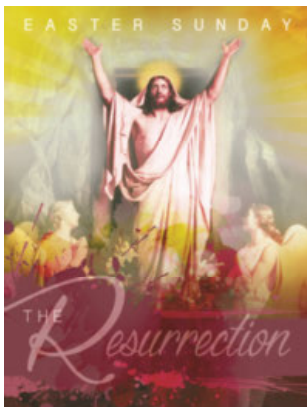

Good Friday ~ March 29th Lord's Passion Liturgy ~ 3:00 PM & 7:00 PM

The church will open at 11:00 AM. Traditional Stations of the Cross will be at 12:00 Noon. The 3:00 PM liturgy includes drama ministry's presentation of the Living Passion and the 7:00 PM includes the traditional reading of the Passion. Both liturgies include solemn intercessions, adoration of the cross and Communion .

Holy Saturday ~ March 30th Easter Vigil Mass ~ 7:00 PM

The Vigil liturgy includes the Easter Proclamation, Litany of the Saints, Baptism and Confirmation of new members of the Church, renewal of Baptismal Promises and the celebration of the Eucharist. Although this is a long liturgy, it overflows with symbols, rituals and music which express the core of our faith.

Easter Sunday ~ March 31st Easter Mass ~ The Lord's Resurrection

- 8:00 AM ~ Cantor
- 10:00 AM ~ Children's Choir - Hand bell concert before Mass
- 12:00 PM ~ Adult Choir
- 5:00 PM ~ Young Adult Choir
